 CONNECTIVITY SERVICES FOR PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

TISCALI OFFICIALLY AWARDED CONSIP CALL FOR TENDER OF CONNECTIVITY SERVICES FOR PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Cagliari, 29 aprile 2015 - Tiscali, a leading telecommunications company in Italy, has won the tender, announced by Consip, for the provision of connectivity services of Public Administration under the Public Connectivity System (SPC), offering the best total global price. After being assessed to be the most advantageous in May 2014, the tender submitted by Tiscali has successfully passed all the tests of economic and technique fairness, confirming again its first place in the Consip ranking.

The tender concerns a framework contract "multivendor" for the provision of data transport services, advanced communications, security and expert advice on all the national territory for a duration of 7 years. As stated in the tender, the share held by Tiscali as a contracting company is 60% of the total value of the contract.

"Tiscali has always contributed decisively to the spread of the Internet in Italy among families and companies. Today we have the aim to revive this great change, moving to the public administration all the benefits that the development of different technologies generated in these years, both in terms of economics and functionality, to help speed up the digitization of public administration. It is a cultural evolution with efficiency." Says Renato Soru, President and CEO of Tiscali.

The notice involves the provision of data transport services in IP protocol, security services, communication services, in a coordinated framework defined by Consip with the Agency for Digital Italy.
