PRESS RELEASE

FinecoBank: executed orders at a new daily record high level

Milan, June 25th, 2016

Yesterday, in a market session characterized by high volatility as a result of the outcome of the referendum about the exit of the United Kingdom from the European Union, FinecoBank reported a new record high level of 216,560 executed orders.

These results confirm Fineco's absolute leadership in brokerage activity and the quality of a business model that can successfully face every market phase.

Fineco has managed very high volumes during all yesterday's stages of the day, allowing customers to trade on all main global markets through its different web and mobile platforms.

FinecoBank

FinecoBank is the direct, multi-channel bank of the UniCredit Group, with one of the largest advisory networks in Italy. It is the leading bank in Italy for equity trades in terms of volume of orders and the top online broker in Europe for number of orders executed. FinecoBank offers an integrated business model combining direct banking and financial advice, with a single free-of-charge account including a full range of banking, credit, trading and investment services, which are also available through applications for smartphone and tablet. With its fully integrated platform, FinecoBank is the benchmark for modern investors.
