NEWS RELEASE

Verona, 7 July 2016

Banco Popolare: EU-wide stress test

At this stage, Banco Popolare cannot communicate the results of the EU-wide stress test exercise since the quality assurance is not yet completed and the final outcome will only be disclosed on July 29, after the EBA's final approval. However, Banco Popolare can anticipate that it has conducted an internal stress exercise applying the indications, guidelines and criteria made available by EBA and that such exercise, contrary to Morgan Stanley's misleading report of July 6, 2016, confirms the bank's resilience to the adverse shocks. On this basis, Banco Popolare stands ready to discuss the final results during the SREP with the competent authorities.
