PRESS RELEASE

September net inflows: €386 million (€5.16 billion YTD)

Net inflows of managed products: €341 million (€4.60 billion YTD)

Milan, 9 October 2017 – Banca Generali's net inflows amounted to €386 million in September, bringing the YTD total to €5.16 billion (+26% compared to the same period of the previous year).

Net inflows were mainly driven by managed products, which generated €341 million total net inflows, bringing the YTD total to €4.60 billion (+64%).

Financial and insurance 'wrapper' products proved once again the most-in-demand solution totalling €192 million for the month and €3.5 billion YTD. Total assets in wrapper products are estimated at €11.3 billion for the first nine months of the year.

Funds and Sicavs also performed very well with €127 million net inflows for the month (€1.3 billion YTD).

In addition, net inflows from assets under administration and custody amounted to €45 million thus reflecting the constant acquisition of new customers (€556 million YTD).

Chief Executive Officer Gian Maria Mossa stated: "Our advisory service continues to be high in demand and there is much interest in our managed solutions which integrate the advisory concept into financial and insurance products. Although September has been as usual dedicated to network meetings aimed at conveying the strategic focus and organising work after the summer holiday period, Banca Generali significantly reported a 50% increase in net inflows compared to the same period of the previous year. Our professionals' dedication and the bank's innovation processes allow us to look to the coming months with great confidence."
