PRESS RELEASE

DENIAL AGAINST ARTICLE OF “CORRIERE MILANO”

With reference to the article of Corriere della Sera of today, Milan section (pgg. 1,2 and 3) signed by journalists Daniela Polizzi and Simona Ravizza, Falck Renewables S.p.A. - together with its controlled companies, informs that it is not involved in the civil proceedings initiated by Milanostesto S.p.A. against Falck S.p.A. mentioned by the same article. Unrelated to the so-called “ex Falck” areas as well as to any steel sector activities, Falck Renewables represents one of the leading producers of energy from wind, solar, biomass and waste-to-energy at European level in the renewables energies sector.

Falck Renewables S.p.A. a Falck Group Company, listed in the STAR segment of the Italian Stock Exchange, develops, designs, builds and manages power production plants from renewable energy sources. Falck Renewables consolidates installed capacity of 858 MW in 2017 (821 MW according to the IFRS 11 reclassification) in Italy, United Kingdom, Spain, France, and produces more than 2 billion KWh of energy per year, generated by wind, solar, biomass, and waste-to-energy technologies. Through its Madrid-based, wholly owned company Vector Cuatro, Falck Renewables delivers commercial and technical asset management, engineering, and M&A advisory services with a track record exceeding 1.7GW of solar and wind and presence in 24 Countries worldwide.
