PRESS RELEASE

Amsterdam, 19 June 2020

EXOR REOPENS THE 15-YEAR NOTES DUE OCTOBER 2034 FOR EURO 200 MILLION

EXOR announces the reopening of its Euro 300 million notes issued on 14 October 2019 and due October 2034, increasing the amount by Euro 200 million. As the notes issued on 14 October 2019, the new notes will carry a fixed annual coupon of 1.75% and will be due in October 2034.

The notes, issued through a private placement to institutional investors at a yield of 2.66%, will be listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange for trading on the Euro MTF Market with a BBB+ credit rating assigned by Standard & Poor's. The settlement date is expected on 23 June 2020.

This press release is not, and shall not constitute, an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy the notes, nor shall there be any sale of these securities in any state or jurisdiction in which such an offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful or restricted by law. No action has been or will be taken to permit a public offering of the notes in any jurisdiction. The notes may not be offered or sold in the United States or to or for the account or benefit of U.S. persons (as such term is defined in Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act as amended (the "Securities Act")) unless registered under the Securities Act or pursuant to an exemption from such registration. Such notes have not been, nor will be, registered under the Securities Act or any other securities laws.

Not for distribution in the United States and any other jurisdiction where distribution of this press release is restricted by law.
