INFORMATION ON THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

pursuant to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (the "Regulation")

Data controller of personal data

Trevisan & Associati Law Firm (the "Holder") , Designated Representative of the issuer pursuant to Article 135-undecies of Legislative Decree no. 58 of 24 February 1998 (the "TUF"), as the holder of the "Processing" (as defined in Article 4 of the Regulation) of Personal Data (as defined below) provides this "Information on the Processing of Personal Data" in accordance with the provisions of the applicable legislation (Article 13 of the Regulation and subsequent related national legislation).

Subject matter and modalities of the Treatment

The personal details of the shareholder and any representative (the "Delegator") as well as the residence, the tax code, the identification document, the email address, the telephone number and the shareholding (in total the "Personal Data") are communicated, also with IT or electronic tools, by the Delegant to Trevisan & Associati Law Firm by means of this form, used for the conferral of representation at the general meeting and the expression of vote on behalf of the Delegating Party, in accordance with the instructions given by the Delegating Party.

The Data Controller processes the Personal Data of the Delegating Party, reported in this proxy form, in a lawful and fair manner and in order to ensure its confidentiality and security. The Processing - which includes the collection and any other operations contemplated in the definition of "processing" by Article 4 of the Regulation - is carried out through manual, computerised and/or telematic tools, with organizational methods and logic strictly related to the purposes indicated below.

Purposes and legal basis of the Treatment

The purpose of the Data Processing by the Data Controller is to allow representation at the Shareholders' Meeting and the correct expression of votes by the Appointed Representative on behalf of the Delegating Party, in compliance with the provisions of the aforementioned Article 135-undecies of the TUF.

The legal basis of the processing is represented by obligations:

- a) contractual: that is to fulfill the obligations arising from the relationship between the Designated Representative and the Delegating Party.
- b) by law: that is, to fulfil legal obligations to which the Appointed Representative is subject vis-à-vis the issuer and the supervisory authorities.

The provision of Personal Data and the processing of the same is necessary for the purposes indicated above and their failure to provide implies, therefore, the impossibility of establishing and managing the aforementioned relationship of representation at the meeting.

Recipients, storage and transfer of Personal Data

The Personal Data will be made accessible for the purposes mentioned above, before, during and after the Shareholders' Meeting, to the employees and collaborators of the Data Controller who are in charge of the processing, as well as to the Company.

The Personal Data of the Delegating Party will be processed within the European Union and will be stored, even on servers located within the European Union, for a period of at least 1 year, in accordance with current legislation. They will be communicated by Trevisan & Associati Law Firm to the Company for the legal requirements related to the drafting of the minutes of the meeting and the update of the shareholders' register and will be communicated to third parties only in compliance with requests from the supervisory authorities and the judiciary.

Rights of the Delegating Party

The Delegate has the right to know, at any time, which are their Personal Data and how they are processed; he also has the right to update, supplement, rectify and also has the right to have them deleted, limit or oppose to their processing but, In such cases, it may be impossible to execute your instructions regarding the participation in the meeting. It should also be considered that, after the assembly, the Personal Data and voting instructions of the Delegating Party must be kept by the Designated Representative for 1 year at the disposal of the Authorities.

For the exercise of these rights the Delegating Party may contact Trevisan & Associati Law Firm, at the address indicated in the proxy form or at the following e-mail address: mail@trevisanlaw.it.
