COMUNICATO STAMPA

STANDARD & POOR'S ALZA IL RATING DI CATTOLICA DA "A-" AD "A" CON OUTLOOK POSITIVO

Verona, 14 luglio 2022. Standard & Poor's in data odierna ha alzato il rating di Cattolica Assicurazioni da A- ad A con outlook positivo. Ha inoltre portato il rating delle emissioni obbligazionarie di Cattolica da BBB a BBB+.

L'upgrade del rating è diretta conseguenza del fatto che oramai Cattolica è divenuta parte core del Gruppo Generali. Inoltre, l'integrazione sta procedendo speditamente e potrebbe subire un'accelerazione anche a seguito della piena proprietà di Cattolica da parte di Generali.

L'agenzia dichiara che potrebbe alzare il rating di Cattolica nel caso di upgrade del rating dell'Italia e nel caso in cui la valutazione sul merito creditizio del Gruppo Generali non risultasse indebolita.

SOCIETÀ CATTOLICA DI ASSICURAZIONE

Cattolica Assicurazioni, società del Gruppo Generali, è uno dei maggiori attori del mercato assicurativo italiano, quotata alla Borsa di Milano dal 2000. Con circa 3,5 milioni di clienti che si affidano alle soluzioni assicurative e ai prodotti distribuiti, Cattolica e le sue controllate contano su 1.338 agenzie diffuse su tutto il territorio nazionale, sia nei grandi che nei piccoli centri, e su una rete di 1.840 agenti. Cattolica privilegia la tutela assicurativa delle persone, delle famiglie e delle realtà produttive, con una attenzione particolare al territorio e ai contesti sociali ed economici in cui esse operano.

Research Update:

Societa Cattolica di Assicurazione Ratings Raised To 'A' On Generali Buyout; Outlook Positive

July 14, 2022

Overview

- On July 12, 2022, Assicurazioni Generali SpA (Generali) announced it had exceeded 95% ownership of Società Cattolica di Assicurazione S.p.A. (Cattolica) and will squeeze out of the remaining minority shareholders
- We believe the integration of Cattolica in Generali is proceeding speedily and could accelerate following Generali's full ownership of Cattolica.
- We continue to consider that the Generali group would be resilient to a potential default of Italy (BBB/Positive/A-2).
- We therefore raised our ratings on Cattolica to 'A' from 'A-' based on our view of the entity's core status in the Generali group.
- The positive outlook reflects that on Italy, and indicate that we could raise our ratings on Cattolica if we upgrade Italy and our current assessment Generali group's creditworthiness has not weakened.

Rating Action

On July 14, 2022, S&P Global Ratings raised its long-term insurer financial strength and issuer credit ratings on Italy-domiciled Società Cattolica di Assicurazione (Cattolica) to 'A' from 'A-'. The outlook is positive.

We also raised our ratings on Cattolica's hybrid debt issues to 'BBB+' from 'BBB'.

Rationale

The upgrade reflects our view that Cattolica is now a core part of the Generali Group and will be 100% owned by Generali. We believe the Generali group would be resilient to a hypothetical sovereign stress of Italy, based on our estimate that the group would not entirely deplete its regulatory capital base in our sovereign stress test. We have applied the sovereign stress test because we estimate that Generali group's exposure to Italy (excluding unit-linked and third-party assets under management) is material and likely to be close to 25% of general account investments.

In our view, Generali group's business risk profile benefits from its very strong market positions in Western Europe and Central and Eastern Europe, as well as diversified earnings by business line. We also consider that Generali group's financial risk profile is consistent with at least our satisfactory category, based on our review of public information. Generali group's Solvency II eligible own funds stood at €50.6 Billion on Dec. 31, 2021, only 20% lower than Generali's direct exposure to Italian sovereign bonds of €63 billion on that date. Although we estimate that Generali holds material exposure to other types of Italian assets, the group passes our sovereign stress test comfortably. As such, we believe that the Generali group and its core subsidiaries, including Cattolica, can be rated up to three notches above the rating on Italy.

In our assessment of Cattolica as core for Generali, we note that the acquisition has materially increased Generali's share of Italy's property/casualty insurance market to more than 20%. We believe the Cattolica's integration into Generali is proceeding speedily and could accelerate following Generali's full ownership of Cattolica. We note that the management of Cattolica has a good fit with Generali's culture, as shown by the appointment of Cattolica's current CEO as Generali group's chief risk officer from Sept. 1, 2022. Operationally, we expect that Cattolica's insurance policies will migrate to the Generali Italia platform in order to maximize synergies.

Cattolica's stand-alone credit profile (SACP) of 'bbb+' reflects our view of the company's strong business risk profile in Italy and satisfactory financial risk profile. Following its acquisition, we no longer cap the ratings on Cattolica at the level of our ratings on Italy (BBB/Positive/A-2) and reflect in the ratings the potential for extraordinary support from Generali.

Outlook

The positive outlook reflects that on Italy and our expectation that Generali group will remain resilient to potential sovereign stress of Italy. We could raise our long-term ratings on Cattolica in case of an upgrade of Italy and if our current assessment Generali group's creditworthiness has not weakened.

Downside scenario

We could revise our outlook to stable within the next 24 months if we revised the outlook on Italy to stable, or if we consider that our current assessment of Generali group's creditworthiness had weakened.
