PRESS RELEASE

MARCO PACINI IS THE NEW GROUP CFO OF GVS

Zola Predosa (BO), 12 October 2022 - GVS S.p.A. announces that Mario Saccone, Group Chief Financial Officer, will leave his position to move within the family office of the Scagliarini family.

The consensual termination of the employment relationship will be effective as of 31 December 2022. Mr. Saccone, by virtue of his active contribution to the GVS Group and the fiduciary relationship built over the years with the Scagliarini family, will retain his position as Director in GVS SpA until the expiry of the mandate.

The CEO Massimo Scagliarini, on behalf of the entire company, sincerely thanks Mr. Saccone for his great professional contribution and valuable support to the company's development over the 26 years of common journey.

The Company has identified Marco Pacini as the new Group CFO, who will take up his position as of 1 January 2023.

Marco Pacini has solid experience in the administration, finance and control area, as well as in extraordinary transactions, having served as CFO in leading companies active in the service sector, listed in the Euronext Star Milan segment. Previously, Mr. Pacini held positions of increasing responsibility, both in Italy and abroad, within the FCA Group.

With the addition of Marco Pacini, GVS aims to strengthen its managerial structure by integrating it with new skills from different markets to support the planned growth path, continuing to create value for the Company and all stakeholders.

"I am very pleased to welcome Marco Pacini to GVS. His solid professional background in major listed companies, combined with his industrial experience in the automotive sector, make him a valuable resource to further strengthen our top management team committed to executing the Group's strengthening and growth plan," says Massimo Scagliarini, CEO of GVS.

On the basis of the information available, as of today, neither Mr. Saccone nor Mr. Pacini owns GVS shares.
