LANDI RENZO POSTPONES BoD FOR THE APPROVAL OF QUARTERLY RESULTS THE COMPANY TARGETED BY A CIRCUMSCRIBED CYBER ATTACK PROMPTLY INTERVENED

Caviago (RE), October 31st, 2022 – Landi Renzo reports that it has been affected by a cyber attack resulting in some corporate servers being temporarily and partially unavailable. The Company has promptly activated a task force of experts who conducted careful and thorough analyses related to the dynamics of the attack, highlighting the complete integrity of the backup systems and intervening with a series of coordinated actions aimed at fully resuming all priority business activities, containing their potential impact.

The Group immediately informed all relevant institutional bodies of what happened and took the required measures to safeguard company's interest, implementing all required actions to remedy the cyber intrusion, protect the data of its customers, suppliers, employees and likewise prevent similar events from happening in the future.

For precautionary reasons, the Company has decided to postpone the approval of the third quarterly report up until November 30th.
