Giovanni Crostarosa Guicciardi

Born 3 May 1965

Education

Diploma Liceo Classico G. Mameli - Rome (60/60)

Degree in Economics and Business - Università Commerciale Luigi Bocconi (110/110 cum Laude).

Work Experience

He started his career working at Akros, one of Italy's leading investment banks, first in the M&A team and later in the Private Equity team. He was then involved in the creation and fundraising of a major healthcare project in Rome (Campus Bio-Medico), which is considered a successful model of its kind in Europe. Meanwhile, he taught accounting at the Catholic University of Milan.

He is currently a founding partner of Studio Corbella-Villa-Crostarosa Guicciardi, a Milan-based professional association active in the areas of corporate governance, finance, valuation and forensic accounting. The firm - launched in January 2005 - advises institutional investors, banks, industrial and service companies, both in Italy and abroad.

Until December 2004, he was a partner at Studio Cattaneo & Associati, responsible for international affairs. Studio Cattaneo, founded in Milan in 1954, counts some of Italy's leading listed and unlisted corporate groups among its clients. Dr Crostarosa Guicciardi joined the firm in 1999 and became a partner in 2001.

Over the years, he has developed specific expertise in supervisory bodies and, increasingly, as a board member of a wide range of listed and unlisted industrial and financial companies, including national and international banks, indicated by private and institutional investors. He has extensive specific experience in corporate governance and regulatory compliance matters, mainly in the financial and banking sectors. He has recently become increasingly involved in companies active in the digital economy and fintech environment. He has been a frequent speaker at events on corporate governance, accounting, business ethics and the evolution of the fintech sector.

 LARGO DELLA CROCETTA 7
 20122 MILAN MI

17/07/2019

Dear GIOVANNI CROSTAROSA GUICCIARDI

We are sending you your new Health Card to replace the expired one.

Thanks to the presence of a microchip, the card can also be used as a National Services Card (Cns) to access online services of the public administration.

The card replaces the tax code card and is used to book specialist visits or clinical examinations at hospitals, local health authorities, and affiliated facilities. In addition, it can be used in pharmacies to obtain a receipt that allows you to deduct expenditure on medicines in your tax return.

If it is personalised on the back, it is also valid as a European Health Insurance Card (fTeam), which allows access to health services in EU countries.

On expiry, if the conditions for health care are confirmed, a new card will be sent to you; as certification of your tax code, the card remains valid even after expiry.

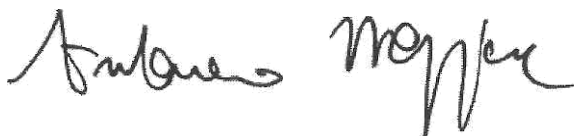

If you find any errors in your personal data, please contact any Revenue Office to have them corrected.

For information on the use of the card and health care you can contact the dedicated toll-free number 800.030.070, contact your local health authority or visit the website www.agenziaentrate.gov.it.

In the event of loss, theft or deterioration of the card, a duplicate can be requested on the website www.agenziaentrate.gov.it, at the relevant local health authority or at any Revenue Office.

Best regards

The Director of the Agency

The Sogei Chairman
