Art. 126-bis

(Supplementing the meeting agenda and submitting new proposed resolutions)

1. Shareholders who individually or jointly represent at least one fortieth of the share capital may request, within ten days of the publication of the meeting notice, or within five days in the case of a notice pursuant to Article 125-bis, paragraph 3 or Article 104, paragraph 2, to supplement the items for discussion, indicating in their request the additional items they propose for discussion or submit resolution proposals on items already on the agenda. The requests, together with certification of ownership, shall be submitted in writing, including by correspondence or electronically, subject to any requirements strictly necessary for the identification of requesting parties specified by the company. Anyone entitled to vote may individually submit resolution proposals at the shareholders' meeting. For cooperative companies, the amount of the share capital shall be determined by the articles of association, even in derogation of Article 135.
2. Notice of additions to the agenda or the submission of additional proposed resolutions on matters already on the agenda, pursuant to paragraph 1, shall be given in the same form as prescribed for the publication of the meeting notice at least fifteen days before the date scheduled for the shareholders' meeting. Additional proposed resolutions on topics already on the agenda shall be made available to the public in the manner set forth in Article 125-ter, paragraph 1, when the notice of submission is published. The time limit is reduced to seven days in the case of a shareholders' meeting convened pursuant to Article 104, paragraph 2, or in the case of a shareholders' meeting convened pursuant to Article 125-bis, paragraph 3.
3. Supplementation of the agenda is not permitted for items on which the shareholders' meeting resolves, in accordance with the law, at the proposal of the management body or on the basis of a plan or report prepared by it, other than those set out in Article 125-ter, paragraph 1.
4. Shareholders requesting to supplement the agenda pursuant to paragraph 1 shall prepare a report stating the reasons for the proposed resolutions on the new matters for which they propose discussion or the reasons for additional proposed resolutions on matters already on the agenda. The report shall be sent to the management body before the final deadline for the submission of the request to supplement the agenda. The management body shall make the report, accompanied by its evaluations, if any, available to the public at the same time as the publication of the supplementation or submission notice, in the manners set forth in Article 125-ter, paragraph 1.
5. If the management body, or, if it fails to act, the board of statutory auditors, or the supervisory body or the management control committee, fails to supplement the agenda with the new matters or proposals submitted pursuant to paragraph 1, the court, after hearing the members of the management and control bodies, if the refusal to do so is unjustified, shall order the supplementation by decree. The decree shall be published in the manners set forth in Article 125-ter, paragraph 1.

Art. 135-decies

(Conflict of interests of the representative and replacements)

1. Granting a proxy to a representative with a conflict of interests is permissible provided that the representative notifies the shareholder in writing of the circumstances underlying the conflict and provided that there are specific voting instructions for each resolution on which the representative is to vote on behalf of the member. The representative bears the burden of proof that he or she has disclosed the circumstances giving rise to the conflict of interests to the shareholder. Article 171 l, second paragraph, of the Italian Civil Code shall not apply.
2. For the purposes of this article, a conflict of interests exists in any case where the representative or replacement:
 - a) controls, including jointly, the company or is controlled by it, including jointly, or is under common control with the company;
 - b) is related to or exercises significant influence over the company or the company exercises significant influence over the representative;
 - c) is a member of the management or supervisory body of the company or the parties specified in letters a) and b);
 - d) is an employee or an auditor of the company or the parties specified in letter a);
 - e) is a spouse, relative or in-law within the fourth degree of the parties specified in letters a) to c);
 - f) is linked to the company or the parties specified in letters a), b), c) and e) by self-employment or employment relationships or other financial relationships that compromise their independence.
3. Substitution of the representative with a replacement with a conflict of interests is permitted only if the replacement has been designated by the shareholder. Paragraph 1 applies in that case. The reporting requirements and the relative burden of proof remain with the representative.
4. This article also applies in the case of the transfer of shares by proxy.

Art. 135-undecies

(Representative designated by the company with listed shares)

1. Unless established otherwise in the articles of association, companies with listed shares shall designate a person for each meeting to whom shareholders may give, by the end of the second trading day prior to the date scheduled for the meeting, including on a call subsequent to the first, a proxy with voting instructions on all or some of the proposals on the agenda. The proxy shall be valid only for the proposals in relation to which voting instructions are given.
2. Proxy is given by signing a proxy form, the content of which is governed by Consob regulation. The granting of a proxy entails no expenses for the shareholder. The proxy and voting instructions may always be revoked within the term specified in paragraph 1.
3. Shares for which proxies have been given, even partial proxies, are counted in order to calculate whether the shareholders' meeting is quorate. With regard to proposals for which no voting instructions are given, the shares are not considered in calculating the majority and the percentage of capital required for the resolutions to be approved.
4. The party designated as the representative is required to disclose any interest on its own behalf or on behalf of a third party that it has with respect to the proposed resolutions on the agenda. It also maintains the confidentiality of the content of voting instructions received until the vote counting begins, without prejudice to the possibility of communicating such information to its employees and auxiliaries, who are subject to the same duty of confidentiality. The party designated as the representative may not be given proxies except in accordance with this article.
5. By the regulation referred to in paragraph 2, Consob may determine the cases in which a representative that is not in any of the conditions laid out in Article 135-decies may cast a vote that differs from that specified in the instructions.
